

MILITARY RULE ENDS TONIGHT

Philippines Will Be Under Civil Law After Tomorrow Morning.

ARMY RULE CEASES

President Sends Liberty to Aguinaldo, Pio-del Pilar and Others.

A JOYOUS FOURTH

(Special By Scripps-Mellae)
Washington, D. C., July 3.—The glorious Fourth will be celebrated tomorrow in the Philippines by the issuing of a proclamation declaring all war at an end in the islands and granting amnesty to all political offenders.

Signed By President
The proclamation will be signed by President Roosevelt. By the order the control of the islands is turned over to the civil authorities and the office of military governor, at present held by General Chaffee, is abolished.

Under Civil Control
This places the entire island under the control of the civil authorities and makes their ruling supreme and the army subject to their orders. It will also release from custody, Aguinaldo, Pio del Pilar and Mabino. It is the President's offering to the natives. Acting Governor Wright cabled Sec. Root this morning as follows: "The Provincial government was inaugurated in Laguna, July 1st, thus completing the establishment of civil government over all of the civilized people of the archipelago. The acceptance of American authority was general. The pacification complete. "I beg to offer congratulations to you and through you to the President on the success of the wise and humane policy inaugurated by President McKinley and continued by President Roosevelt."

IRISH AMERICANS TO BE RELEASED

On the Same Conditions as All Other British Prisoners of War.

(Special By Scripps-Mellae)
London, July 3.—In the House of Commons this morning Secretary of War Broderick said that all Irish-American prisoners of war would be released under the same condition and order as that affecting the other prisoners. He did not know how many there were.

BIG FACTORY FIRE

Hartford Suffers Severe Loss By Fire This Morning

(Special By Scripps-Mellae)
Hartford, Conn., July 3.—Fire this morning destroyed the factory of the Capwell Horse Nail Co. The loss will reach $400,000. It is covered by insurance, but the fire will throw several hundred men out of employment for some time.

Constantinople, July 3.—The town of Tugia, Turkey, was completely destroyed by fire early this morning. Eight hundred families have been rendered homeless and the suffering, it is claimed, will be very great.

PROBE SUGAR TRUST METHODS

Government to Investigate Levying of Import Duties.

New York, July 3.—The government has decided to investigate the methods which have been used by the sugar trust in connection with the levying of import duties on raw sugar. There are rumors that bribery has been used and Attorney General Knox is charged with the task of forcing the heads of the combine to disclose the details of the plan.

Buy Home for Elks.

Harrisburg, Pa., July 3.—Mead D. Detwiler, chairman of the national home committee of the grand lodge of Elks, has purchased the Hotel Bedford, Bedford, Va., for a home for aged and indigent Elks.

Dynamite on Car Track.

Fort Dodge, Ia., July 3.—Some person unknown to the authorities placed a stick of dynamite on the street car track and a car running at a high rate of speed was completely wrecked and three passengers more or less injured.

Spanish-American Treaty.

Madrid, July 3.—The minister of foreign affairs, the duke of Almodovar, has been authorized to sign a treaty of commerce with the United States, which will then be sent to Washington for the approval of the senate.

SPOONER MEN SCORE VICTORY

Turned Down in Dane, They Carry Douglas and Other Counties.

SENTIMENT STRONG

Badger Senator Is Clearly the People's Choice Despite La Follette Machine Men.

LA CROSSE IS SAFE

Dane county's convention held yesterday should convince the most skeptical believer, that the election of La Follette means the downfall of Senator Spooner. It was only after a bitter fight that the Conservatives were able to secure any recognition of their candidate.

Then when it came it was in such a grudging manner and so worded that it is a veiled insult to one of the greatest men and statesmen that Wisconsin has ever sent to Washington.

With La Follette and his lieutenants in command, the convention was run as they pleased. The voices of the Conservatives were completely ignored. They might just as well have not been there at all for all the moral effect they had upon the decision of the convention.

Led by ex-Sheriff Ralph Vernon, a former La Follette supporter, the Conservatives made a desperate fight for recognition of Senator Spooner's ability and services. What they secured was half what they hoped for and half what he deserved.

Grant County
In Grant county both districts went for La Follette although one exceeded the power given it by the machine and actually dared to pass resolutions endorsing Wisconsin's senior senator. Doubtless they will be punished later.

Washington County
Washington county went Stalwart and endorsed Spooner and instructed for Froelich. There was no contest here. The affair had been cut and dried long before and the ten delegates from this county will vote with the Conservatives in an effort to defeat La Follette.

Iron County
Iron county is safe. It is Stalwart. Its five delegates have but one object in view that of defeating La Follette, and his machine if possible. They were uninstructed and will come to the convention, liable to vote for any good republican.

Dodge County
Dodge county elected its delegates yesterday. They were all instructed for the Conservative candidate and to add to the Governor's defeat, rousing endorsements of Senator Spooner were passed.

Douglas County
La Follette forces had carried Douglas county by a clear majority and the convention held there yesterday was most harmonious. The Scofield men smiled and endured their defeat. Resolutions for the senior senator were passed and his re-election recommended.

Waupaca County
Two honest supporters of Senator Spooner were nominated in assembly convention yesterday. Both men are enthusiastic over Wisconsin's able representative in the senate and it was by their efforts that they had resolutions endorsing him passed. Just what La Follette will say to that does not seem to bother the Waupaca delegation and there is much rejoicing over the victory.

Monroe County
La Follette men in Monroe county went on record yesterday as against the return of Spooner. The La Follette men being in control dominated the whole matter and at first refused to allow Spooner's name mentioned. They were pretty willing to let La Follette receive all the praise but none for Spooner. Seeing that their efforts were in vain the Conservatives bolted the convention. When this happened the La Follette men conceded their request but only in a modified form and simply endorsed and did not pledge support.

LaCrosse County
The Conservative element won a victory in LaCrosse county. They have a safe majority of 24 or 25. Enough to control the county convention and assure a straight republican delegation at Madison, July 16.

Columbia County
Old Columbia county went for La Follette. The complete returns are not yet in but it is out of the Conservative column. William Lettsch, a former Cleveland democrat, a democrat mayor of Columbia and gold flopper to the G. O. P., and at present a candidate for the nomination for congress on the republican ticket, did the work. He had promised to deliver the county to La Follette and the county is delivered by democratic votes.

Racine County
Racine county elected La Follette delegates. They controlled the convention and while they allowed resolutions favoring Spooner they did not heartily endorse him nor did they allow the Stalwarts any chance to say anything in the convention. As in Dane they ran everything and kept a tight whip hand out.

E. R. Von Stuessmich of Delavan had legal business in the city yesterday.

FOLLOW ANCIENT FEUDAL CUSTOM

Court Circular Pays No Notice to Edward's Sickness.

KING IS IMPROVING

Latest Day for Coronation is St. Edmund's Day, November 20.

WOULD BE PRIVATE

(Special By Scripps-Mellae)
London, July 3.—This morning's bulletins from the sick chamber show that the King slept well last night and that nothing occurred to mar his excellent progress. He is now thought to be entirely out of danger.

Feudal Custom
His Majesty's illness has not yet been mentioned in the court circulars, a custom that is a survival of an old custom of not making such an admission for fear that some rival would take the opportunity and seize the throne.

Another Date Named
The latest date for the coronation now to be named is St. Edmund's day, November 20. Should this be so the ceremony will be strictly and exclusively a religious one.

POLICE PROTECT THE PRESIDENT

Precautions Are Taken For His Excellency's Safety at Pittsburg Tomorrow.

Washington, D. C., July 3.—Two secret service operators will guard the president on his way to Pittsburg tonight and when he reaches that city he will be surrounded by a cordon of secret policemen, regular and irregular soldiery.

Precautions are to be as careful and comprehensive as possible. The president himself scouts the idea of any personal danger, but as a number of the anarchist fraternity are believed to make Pittsburg their headquarters, it is deemed best to use caution.

Explosions of firecrackers and torpedoes will not be tolerated within one hundred yards of the Presidential party.

SERIOUS BLUNDER OF DISPATCHER

Operator Mixes Orders and Bad Collision Results in Which Four Are Injured.

(Special By Scripps-Mellae)
Pittsburg, Pa., July 3.—Four passengers were seriously injured and twenty cut and bruised in an accident near Pittsburg this morning. None of the injured are expected to die.

Through A Mistake
The accident occurred at Glenn's Paw, a few miles west of this city, an engine on train No. 43 smashing into the rear of a passenger train completely telescoping it. The train was the accommodation running out of the city for suburban points and at the time of the accident had sixty passengers on board.

Operator Blunders
The accident occurred through the misunderstanding of the train dispatcher and operator in the Pittsburg offices. Train No. 43 was given the right of way and then the other engine was sent on the same track.

GAME LAW VOID

Oshkosh Judge Decides That Wisconsin Law Is Not Binding

Oshkosh, Wis., July 3.—The fish and game law has been declared unconstitutional by the county judge of Winnebago county and the case will be taken to the Supreme court in order that a test may be made.

A steamboat captain on the Fox River forcibly prevented two game wardens from going aboard his vessel and searching for contraband game which they suspected was on board. The captain was arrested and prosecuted under the game law, which provides a penalty and forfeiture for anyone who shall obstruct the wardens in their search of suspected premises.

It was held in the court that the law operated as a forfeiture of property rights and security, and was therefore null and void. The decision will enable transportation companies to move contraband game and fish with impunity.

REFUSES PRAISE FOR SPOONER

La Follette Shows His Hand in Senatorial Fight in Dane Convention.

MAKES THE PLANS

His Lieutenants Fight All Manner of Pledges of Support to Wisconsin Senator.

A BATTLE ROYAL

Madison, Wis., July 3.—(Special.)—Senator John C. Spooner was given an "endorsement" by the three Dane county assembly district conventions which elected delegates to the state convention yesterday afternoon, but it was not an endorsement which satisfied the Stalwart supporters of the senator.

All three conventions passed resolutions, prepared by the La Follette men, which praised Senator Spooner's past services, but said nothing of future support for him. A resolution offered by the Stalwart minority, first independently and then as an amendment, was defeated. This was as follows:

"Be it resolved, That the people of Dane county and the city of Madison, irrespective of party or faction, are especially proud of the standing in the nation of our distinguished friend and fellow citizen, John C. Spooner. The recognized leader in the senate, the right arm of the national republican administration, the fearless champion of all that stands for the dignity and the glory of our republic, his services to the country are indispensable.

"Be it further resolved, That we instruct the delegates this day elected to support the passage in the republican state convention of resolutions demanding the re-election of Senator Spooner at the next session of the legislature."

Defeated By Party Vote
This was defeated by an almost strictly factional vote, though a few of the governor's supporters voted for it. The much modified endorsement in the majority resolutions, which were passed, was as follows:

"We recognize and commend the valuable and distinguished public services of the Wisconsin representatives in both the Senate and the House of Congress, and especially of our fellow townsman, Senator John C. Spooner."

Really Denounce Spooner
The resolutions then proceeded to denounce the opposition in the following terms: "We condemn the extraordinary efforts made here and elsewhere to project contests for the United States senatorship into a campaign for the nomination of a governor to which it is in no wise related. We deplore the continued misuse of a United States senator's name through the press and even upon posters, circulars and caucus tickets in this and other counties, for the purpose of blinding and misleading voters as to the real issues. These issues are of supreme interest to the people and of vastly greater importance to the cause of a just and honest government than the ambitions of any individual or his supporters for the office of governor or United States senator."

Score Legislature
The last legislature is scored for its failure "to fulfill party pledges, to enact laws to tax every corporation and individual fairly and equally to proportion of wealth values, and to give to each citizen a voice in the selection of candidates for office by providing for the abolishment of caucuses and conventions and direct nomination of all candidates through the Australian ballot."

Censure is also pronounced on "the efforts made to forestall or prevent intelligent and unprejudiced expression of voters respecting these questions by misrepresentation of public sentiment through congressional and other conventions, the delegates to which were elected for specific purposes wholly irrelevant to state issues or policies of state administration."

Approve of "Bob."
Governor La Follette's administration is approved and endorsed as "conspicuously clean, honest, mindful of the public welfare. We cherish his persistent, energetic and courageous work for the fulfillment of party pledges as a token of good faith from the party to the people," and the delegates to the state convention from all three districts, 37 in all, were instructed to vote and work for his renomination.

These resolutions were voted against almost unanimously by the Stalwart minority. R. C. Vernon, the stalwart champion in the First district, tried to have them voted in by sections, saying there were some parts which he and his friends would like to support, but Chairman Seamonson said that this would take too much time.

TOBACCO PLANTS ARE DOING FINELY

CROP TO BE RECORD BREAKER

Growers Say Wisconsin Soil Is Not Adapted to Shade-Grown Tobacco.

Practically all of this season's crop of tobacco is now in the ground. The work of transplanting the crop has been going on for the last two weeks without a let up. The numerous light rains that we have had in that time has put the ground in ideal shape for transplanting. Many of the farmers who figured on a certain acreage early in the season have found that everything being favorable for the present crop it would be a good time to increase their acreage somewhat and have planted considerably more than they first figured on. At no time in years has the outlook been more propitious than at present. The plants have grown wonderfully since being transplanted and with a good season the crop ought to surpass that of any previous year. The plants took root so quickly that they hardly stopped growing while being transferred from the beds to the field. The result is that there is hardly a missing plant in any of the fields. The only drawback to the early setting is likely to come later on when the crops will be ready for the harvest about the same time and extra help will be hard to secure.

The movement of old goods is very small, little being done in this line. Most of the warehouses have practically finished handling the 1900 crop and have closed down their sorting rooms. One or two warehouses where the owners were heavy buyers of the crop are still in operation.

Many of the growers who have had a long experience in raising tobacco in this section of the country and have given the matter careful study claim that Wisconsin soil is not at all adapted to the raising of shade grown tobacco. While the tobacco raised in the open is of good quality it does not have the fine leaf of other sections of the United States. They contend that the soil is altogether too heavy for shade grown Sumatra.

In the general tobacco market trading runs along smoothly in small quantities, while the lack of any supply in domestic wrapper leaf and suitable binder stock is very pronounced. Prices rule comparatively high for any type of leaf in demand. Sumatra sales are plenty but only sample sales and small lots are taken. There is, however, one satisfaction to be noted, that all Sumatra on hand seems to suit. All crazes and fads as to spots and extreme colors seem to have vanished from the earth and the price that Sumatra is being sold at now brings it within the reach of nearly every grade of cigar except the cheapest. The Havana market continues active and promises to remain so for some time. Our very detailed and accurate reports from Havana in regard to the new crop would even justify a brisk boom in the stock on hand. Those who are taking advantage of the situation now by laying in a full supply are only following the dictates of a wise and prudent policy.

In New York state planting is the order of the day, but it is not progressing as satisfactorily as could be desired on account of the continuous rain, which renders the ground too heavy for working, especially by transplanting machines. Plants which have been set out are not doing badly, but the seedlings, not yet transplanted, are becoming rather too tall and spindly. A careful resume of the reports from the different sections leads to the belief that about the same acreage as last year will be planted, for tobacco is about the best money crop the general farmer can plant as is shown by the last census report, which shows that the values of the different crops per acre in New York State were as follows: Flowers and plants, $1916.89; nursery products, $199.33; tobacco, $103.67; small fruits, $101.33; miscellaneous vegetables, $69.35; grapes, $65.28; hops, $58.12; potatoes, $37.96; or- card fruits, $24.09; beans and peas, $18.77; cereals, $10.97.

In the Connecticut Valley the new crop is practically all set out, and it is now feasible to estimate the acreage as compared with last year. In spite of the bitter complaints about docking, the unsatisfactory prices and other alleged grievances, farmers evidently realize that tobacco is a good crop and the acreage will be greater than that of last year. In addition a large amount will be raised under shade, and if more than ordinary damage is not sustained the total crop will probably exceed any previous yield by many thousands of pounds. The growing crop so far is doing finely and very little injury from cutworm is yet apparent. A peculiar condition is said to prevail in Massachusetts where Sumatra and Havana seed have become so mixed that there is a great possibility that tobacco from that section will prove a hybrid which will be neither fish, flesh, fowl or good red heller.

In Chicago the jobbers report a constant increase in business, the proportional demand being equal in and out of town.

In leaf circles, as is usual at this season, few large transactions are reported, though business in small parcels is amply satisfactory. Among the principal sales noted was one of Florida leaf (1901 crop) by Tausig & Co., in which $15,000 worth was conveyed to an Eastern firm.

Leaf business in Milwaukee has not improved any during the past week and the regular slow summer trade is now on. Collections have been somewhat better and are considered good for this time of the year.

Trade in Philadelphia continues in somewhat of an upset condition. This is particularly true among the smaller leaf dealers and cigar manufacturers, and as they are in the majority naturally much complaint is heard.

The smaller leaf dealers, who depend for much of their trade on the smaller manufacturers in this city and in the First District, say that their salesmen return with the information that they can't sell goods because the factories are dull and are not working surplus stock. They attribute this condition to the methods of the big corporations which are more and more making inroads into their territory.

Lancaster, Pennsylvania, farmers are all rejoicing at the rains which came at the last moment to relieve their tobacco fields from what threatened to be a total failure of the crop. Several moderate showers have visited us during the past week, but in these days of windy weather moisture is very quickly evaporated and it requires rain at short intervals to keep the fields on the move.

When Men are Careful.
Practical jokes did not go in dueling times. They are not popular forms of amusement in dueling countries even now. Deep Borings in the United States.
The deep well borings in the United States, made for water, oil and gas, are the subject of a statistical report of N. H. Darton, in the series of Water-Supply and Irrigation Papers of the United States Geological Survey. The list of deep wells is arranged by states, in alphabetical order, and appears in two pamphlets, known as Water Supply Papers Nos. 57 and 61. All wells 400 feet in depth or over are carefully listed. Depth, diameter, yield per minute, and other characteristic data are given, and many instructive details are noted indicating for what purpose the borings were made, the character of the product obtained, and whether the wells are in use or abandoned. For the benefit of persons desiring more detailed information concerning wells in any particular region, references are given to the literature or other sources from which the data were obtained. The large product of natural gas in the East and the West, the enormous output from the oil fields in California, Texas and the East, and the considerable and indispensable water supply furnished by the deep wells on the plains and in the arid and humid States, make concise and accessible information of this nature valuable for economic and scientific purposes.

LAW DISREGARDED BY MANY FARMERS

SHOULD NAME COUNTRY HOMES

Residents of the Town of Janesville Are Liable to a Fine of Ten Dollars.

Indignation is felt by certain of the farmers in the town of Janesville, over the failure of others to comply with the recent town law, requiring that each farm have a name and that the name be posted where it may be seen from the road.

The law is designed for the convenience of rural mail carriers and is the result of a long period of agitation. It was passed some two months ago and only a small number of the farm owners has paid any attention to it.

The State Law.
About a year ago a state law was enacted, entitled, "An act relating to the naming of farms." This provided that upon a filed petition of ten percent of the qualified electors of a town, at the next town meeting, the question should be put, whether or not the farms in that town should be named. If the proposition be carried, by-laws may be framed, which shall provide for the system of naming farms. The law further enacts a penalty of ten dollars upon anyone who shall neglect to carry out the provisions of the law within thirty days of the date that notice of its passage is served.

Following the provisions of this enactment, the town of Janesville, on May first, 1902, took a vote on the question of naming farms and it was decided in the affirmative. The supervisors then drew up by-laws, which were in substance as follows:

By-Laws Are Passed
Names for farms shall be selected and registered with the town clerk at a fee of ten cents. Registration gives exclusive right to the use of the name.

Names shall be painted upon boards two and a half feet by one foot in size. In addition to the name, there shall also be put upon the board the name of the owner and the section and town of the farm.

The board shall be placed in conspicuous view of the road.
Law is Disregarded.
A copy of this by-law was mailed as a notice to all farm owners in the town. At the front of the card on which the law was printed, attention was called to the ten dollars fine which was to be imposed for failure to carry out its provisions and yet two months from its date of passage, the law is far from being enforced.

A farm-owner in the town of Janesville, who is anxious to see the requirements of the law more generally lived up to, has made out a list of suitable names for farms, with the hope that they prove a helpful suggestion to some who are at a loss for names. A few of the names are hereto appended.

Suggestive Names.
Blythwood, Misty Lane, Ryehill, Boffisfield, Sapperton, Sellside, Pine Ridge, Walsend, Pointpedra, Glenbuck, Leorrig, Homelea, Bogside, Broom's Grove, Loauln, Cathkin, Pott's Grove, Craighead, Glenside, Crossbank and Greenside.

Between December, 1896, and June, 1902, the horse population of New York fell from 73,746 to 65,086, a decline of 8,660, and the number of stables was reduced from 4,649 to 3,326, a decline of 1,323. But this phenomenon, which seems to betoken the rapid disappearance of the horse, is not, as may be supposed, owing only to the popularity of the automobile. Most of the falling off is attributable to the substitution of electricity for horse traction on street cars, a reform in which New York was six or seven years behind most of the other cities of the country. At the same time the automobile is making marked inroads, especially among the delivery and draft horses. Heavy automobile drays are being put into service the power of which is not only used for propulsion but for handling the bales and boxes. One safe concern is supplying itself with drays of a special design equipped with powerful hoisting apparatus. It is again believed that it is only a matter of a few years before the horse for all purposes except show and pleasure will be entirely displaced in spite of the fact that the change is much slower than some enthusiasts were disposed to believe would be the case when the automobile first made its appearance.

EDWARD'S CONDITION IS GOOD.

Bulletin Indicate That Doctors Believe King Is Out of Danger.
London, July 3.—King Edward continues to improve. He passed another good day, and the bulletins issued show the physicians in charge believe their patient now is, for the present, out of danger.

The first bulletin yesterday said: "The king had another excellent night, and is making steady progress in all respects. The wound is much less troublesome, and is beginning to heal." It was announced that he had partaken of a fairly good dinner and smoked a cigar.

A unique and impressive scene was witnessed in St. Paul's cathedral when 2,000 doctors assembled and offered prayers for the king's recovery. Many of the doctors wore their academic robes. A litany was sung in procession, the doctors joining in the singing. At the conclusion of the service the congregation sent a message to Queen Alexandra expressing its fervent wishes for his majesty's speedy recovery.

BUY SPRING VALLEY COAL MINE

Seatonville Coal Property Changes Hands for $280,000.

Spring Valley, Ill., July 3.—The Spring Valley Coal company has taken possession of the Seatonville coal mine, operated and owned for fifteen years by the Chicago, Wilmington and Vermillion Coal company. The purchase price was fixed at $280,000. The new owners will in time give employment to 1,000 miners, doubling the force. The Northwestern railway will build an extension of two miles to connect with the mine.

COMPLETE PLANS FOR WARSHIPS

Navy Department Has Decided on General Scheme for New Boats.

STRENGTH THE MAIN FEATURE

Vessels Are to Have a Displacement of 16,000 Tons, a Speed of Eighteen Knots and a Complete Complement of Guns.

Washington, July 3.—The navy department has its plans practically completed for the four big warships just authorized by the new naval law, and to bear the names of Louisiana, Connecticut, Tennessee and Washington. The distinctive features of the new ships are the strength and the arrangement of their batteries and a greater thickness in armor. The battle ships are to have a displacement of 16,000 tons and will be built for a speed of eighteen knots. Their batteries will consist of four 12-inch guns, eight 8-inch guns, twelve 7-inch and twenty 3-inch guns, and a large supply of smaller weapons scattered over the ship.

The armored cruisers are to have a displacement of 14,500 tons and a speed of twenty-two knots. Their batteries will consist of four 10-inch guns, sixteen 6-inch and twenty-two 3-inch guns and a large number of smaller ones.

SAMOAN AFFAIRS.

United States Consul Blacklock Suggests Some Changes.

Washington, July 3.—William Blacklock, United States vice consul and fiscal agent at Apia and Tutuila, Samoa, has arrived in the city to lay before the proper officials a statement of conditions in Tutuila and a series of suggested amendments to the present scheme of government of the island, which experience has demonstrated to be necessary. It is thought to be desirable that the present system of absolutely naval control over the entire island be modified. It is also deemed well to afford the white natives and the few white civilians some sort of representation in the conduct of local affairs. By a singular omission, the natives never have received any acknowledgment from the United States government of their voluntary submission to our sovereignty, and Mr. Blacklock believes that, to retain their good will, this should be remedied.

WAR CLAIM WARRANTS.

Secretary of the Treasury Issues Checks for $3,218,584.

Washington, July 3.—The treasury department has issued warrants in favor of the states of Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Michigan, Vermont and Ohio, aggregating $3,218,584. These warrants cover the claims of these states for expenses incident to raising and equipping troops during the civil war, recently allowed by the comptroller of the treasury and for which congress made the necessary appropriation. The amounts which are being paid the several states are as follows: Illinois, $1,005,129; Indiana, $635,859; Iowa, $465,417; Michigan, $382,167; Vermont, $289,453; Ohio, $438,553. It is anticipated that several other states which have claims similar to those already allowed will file them with the comptroller asking for favorable action.

FILIPINO AMNESTY.

Three Proclamations to Be Read in the Islands.

Washington, July 3.—Fourth of July in the Philippines will be marked by the declaration of three proclamations, each of which will be of note in the history of the islands. First there will be a declaration of general amnesty to all political offenders in the Philippines. This will include Aguinaldo. The second will declare all military rule in the Philippines at an end, and the third will be a commendation by President Roosevelt of the work of the army in both Cuba and the Philippines. He will take the opportunity of the withdrawal of the military government to render tribute to the army for its service during the era since the close of the Spanish-American war.

CONFER ON CANAL.

Secretary Hay Seeks to Ascertain Best Method of Procedure.

Washington, July 3.—Secretary Hay by appointment had a conference with Lodge, Hanna and Spooner, the subject being the Isthmian canal act. The discussion turned to the steps to be taken to give effect to that important measure, and as the senators named were largely instrumental in creating the legislation under which the canal is to be built, Secretary Hay desired to seize the opportunity before they left Washington for their homes to thoroughly acquaint himself with their views as to the proper procedure in order that the executive branch might be in thorough accord with the legislative in carrying forward the great work of canal construction.

GIVES PEN TO FILIPINO.

Senator Buencamino Secures Precious Bit of Steel.

Washington, July 3.—Senator Buencamino, who has been sojourning in this country, called upon President Roosevelt and requested the pen with which he signed the Philippine government bill, as he desired to preserve it and eventually place it in some public library in the Philippines. The pen already had been given to Senator Lodge, chairman of the Philippine committee, but as he happened to be present at the time, he presented it to Senator Buencamino. When the latter left the White House he remarked that the Philippine bill initiated self-government in the islands. He also paid a high tribute to President Roosevelt.

SEEK TO RECOVER FUNDS.

Action Taken Against the Estate of W. S. Yeatman.

Washington, July 3.—In the probate court a formal motion was filed in behalf of the United States for a suspension of settlement of the accounts of M. R. Thorp as administrator of the estate of William S. Yeatman, former disbursing clerk of the war department, whose accounts at the time of his death were announced to have been $18,000 short. The motion claims for the government a lien and prior right of payment out of all property left by Yeatman and taken possession of by the administrator. The items of indebtedness to the government so far discovered are $2,000 in 1893, $3,000 in 1898, $3,000 in 1899 and $10,000 in 1900.

HENDERSON TO CAMPAIGN.

Speaker to Go On the Stump as a Spellbinder.

Washington, July 3.—Speaker Henderson will take most active part in the congressional campaign next fall. It has been decided to put him on the stump in all the doubtful districts, which can be reached conveniently in an extensive "swing around the circle." Although the speaker had a busy life during the session just ended, both socially and officially, he is enjoying excellent health and with the rest which he can get between now and the time set for firing the first political gun he will be in the best physical condition for "spellbinding."

Babcock Presents a Knife.

Washington, July 3.—Representative Babcock and Overstreet of the Republican congressional committee called on the president to arrange to keep in touch with him during the congressional campaign about to open. Mr. Babcock presented the president with a beautiful pearl paper-knife made from a pearl clam shell. The "pearl" clam is a product of the Mississippi river in Mr. Babcock's district, where there are three or four factories for making pearl buttons and kindred articles from the shells.

For G. A. R. Commander.

Washington, July 3.—The department of the Potomac, G. A. R., has a candidate for commander in chief of the order. He is John McElroy. Mr. McElroy has been a member of the organization for thirty-six years. His military record covered the period from October, 1862, to the close of the war. He was a prisoner at Andersonville and other places. He has had editorial control of papers of national reputation for twenty-eight years.

Signed All Bills.

Washington, July 3.—The records at the capitol show that every bill presented to President Roosevelt was signed by him before congress adjourned. This is exceptional, as it generally happens some measures are overlooked in the hurry. The total number of bills introduced in the house was 15,330. Three committees handled two-thirds of these bills—war claims, 2,498; invalid pensions, 6,509; military affairs, 2,338.

Naval Station Site.

Washington, July 3.—Secretary Moody will probably announce to-day the appointment of a board of three naval officers to select a site for a naval training station on the great lakes. The location probably will be on Lake Erie, lower Lake Huron or Lake Michigan. Erie, Pa., and Detroit are both prominent candidates for the station.

Army War College.

Washington, July 3.—General orders for the establishment of the army war college in this city have been issued at the war department. A house next door to the temporary White house will be used by the college until the buildings at Washington barracks can be constructed.

Names Major Jenkins.

Washington, July 3.—President Roosevelt has determined on the appointment of Major Micah Jenkins, his army comrade and friend, as collector of internal revenue, district of South Carolina, vice George E. Koester, who failed of confirmation.

Kills Carrier Pigeon.

Bourbon, Ind., July 3.—While out hunting near Inwood, Jacob Walmer shot and killed a carrier pigeon which carried a band numbered 16,187 and marked "California V."

CYCLONE SWEEPS RACINE COUNTY

One Man Killed, Eight Persons Injured, and Many Houses Wrecked.

PROPERTY DAMAGE IS $75,000

Thirty-seven Head of Stock Were Killed, Thousands of Trees Blown Down and Hundreds of Acres of Grain Ruined.

Racine, Wis., July 3.—The rural districts in Racine County, from Raymond east to Husher, a distance of ten miles and about a mile in width, was swept by a tornado late last evening. One man was killed, eight persons injured, forty-two houses and barns were wrecked, thirty-seven head of stock killed, thousands of trees blown down, hundreds of acres of grain ruined and other damage done amounting to possibly $75,000.

The fierce wind first struck the house of William Cook, just recently built, west of Raymond, and blew it to pieces.

J. J. Laing's house and barns were then swept away, and Mr. Laing was badly injured, but his family escaped.

The roof and corner of George H. West's house, near by, were blown to atoms.

The house and all of the barns and other buildings of Elshu Lower were completely wiped out, and it is reported three persons were injured.

Death at Caledonia.

The barns of Frank Eastman at Kilbournville are entirely gone.

The barns and home of Albert Herman cannot be located.

William Hess lost his barns and two valuable horses.

Christian Erbs' barns are demolished.

The latter places are all in Caledonia.

The only fatality reported is at the home of G. Thisen of Caledonia. His house was completely demolished and also the outbuildings. The family were in the house at the time, but escaped serious injury. Mr. Thisen was a man fifty years old. A widow and seven children survive.

Reports state that there are many other barns and houses blown away and that it is hard to estimate the exact number.

Blown 100 Yards.

A son of Elshu Lower was driving a horse attached to a wagon loaded with farm implements when the storm caught and carried him and the wagon into a field 100 yards away. The horse was killed and the young man injured, perhaps fatally.

Mrs. H. D. Douglas and family of Oberlin, Kansas, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Fisher of the town of Rock.

What Makes the Home?

Not the house, however fine it may be; not its furniture, pictures and appointments. The wife and mother makes the home, and to speak of going home means to go back into the shelter of the mother's love and care.

And when womanly ills sap the mother's strength, the home-life suffers. The food is not cooked as she cooks it.

Everywhere the lack of wife supervision and motherly thoughtfulness is apparent. What a change, then, when this wife and mother comes back to take her old place in the family. Thousands of women who, because of womanly ills, had been shut out of home life and home happiness, have been enabled to once more take their place in the family after being cured by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness. It makes weak women strong, sick women well.

"I commenced taking your 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Golden Medical Discovery' about the 10th of last December, one year ago," writes Mrs. Eliza Wright, of Mountainview, Howell Co., Missouri. "I have been very slow about writing to you, although I am thankful I am here to-day and have the privilege of saying I thank you a thousand times for your kind advice. I can truthfully say that it was through your kind advice and your medicine and the will of the Lord that I am living to-day. I am in better health than I have been for three years. I have taken one-half dozen bottles of each medicine. I am able to do my washing for four in family, and all my housework, cooking and milking. In fact, I feel like a new woman."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation and its almost countless consequences. They do not react on the system nor beget the pill habit.

Kodol

Digests what you Eat

Dyspepsia Cure

In speaking of indigestion, Dr. Lewis says: "It is deplorable that so many hundreds of thousands of Americans suffer from indigestion. It means that the blood of the nation is becoming impure; for undigested food poisons the blood. Unless a method is devised for overcoming this malady, our race must deteriorate."

Many persons use soda tablets to neutralize fermenting food; this only makes a chemical receptacle out of the stomach, and injures its sensitive structures. Others feed on pepsin, which is better, but not sufficient, for it digests only albuminous foods.

The preparation best fitted to relieve and absolutely cure indigestion is KODOL DYSPEPSIA CURE. It contains every known digestant and digests every kind of food. Its use is a common sense method of treating all stomach troubles, and the results are always certain.

WEATHER FORECAST

Partly cloudy tonight and Friday probably local thunder storms.

The Fifty-Seventh congress is no more. Its closing session Tuesday was fraught with interest. Spooner, the giant of the republican leaders, ended his work of the session in a burst of eloquence in defense of the administration and the army. He was warmly thanked by the President afterwards for his work in the senate during the past trying months. He was honored by his colleagues. He was greeted with respect by the members of the House and lauded in the press all over the country. His actions have brought credit upon himself, upon his party and upon his state.

The present session of congress has accomplished much. It has made strides in appreciating the work of the army. It has made liberal appropriation for an improved navy and it has promoted agricultural interests. Peace and war have been satisfied. Indians, old soldiers, post offices, improvements in the District of Columbia and the general public have been benefited. The Panama canal route has been determined upon and the annual budget has been made. In all, over eight millions of the nation's funds have been appropriated some way or another.

Nor has the work of congress been all dry and dull. Since January 1, the Senate has seen the angry debate between Lodge and Teller and Tillman and Spooner. Then Tillman and McLaurin indulged in a fist fight in the senate itself. Senator Money assaulted a street car conductor and Senators Doolittle and Mack nearly came to blows over the Philippine Bill. Senators Patterson and Dierick and Senators Rawlins and Dierick, had a set to over the same bill that nearly resulted in blows. Lastly comes Senator Bailey's "unwarranted" attack upon Beveridge in which the Indian kept his temper and was choked and Bailey lost his and made an "unwarranted" ass of himself. Truly a wonderfully lively session.

After obtaining Dane county by means of democratic votes, the LaFollette element of the county convention held yesterday tried to keep an endorsement of Senator Spooner from being passed. Still the State Journal will say that LaFollette and his element do not oppose Senator Spooner's re-election. The political pap that the old Journal has been receiving for so long has blinded it to any defects in the giver.

While President Roosevelt was thanking Senator Spooner for his earnest and hearty support to the administration, a republican one, in Washington, Governor LaFollette, J. Crawford Harper and the executive machine at Madison were trying to plan for his rejection by the republicans of his own county. Dane, at the convention that was called republican. Great men are never appreciated at home by small minds.

At the next session of Congress, some Senator should present a bill asking for an appropriation for Senators who are pugilistically inclined, so that they might hire a teacher in physical culture. A twenty-four foot ring might also be an addition to the Senate chamber. When not in use, by the Senators themselves, the pages might have a turn.

Natives of Alaska report to have found Noah's Ark stranded way up north. With the present rainfall, it might be well if some ship builder could go up there and make a copy of the model, for use in this country in case of another flood. Old Noah was a pretty good ship builder, after all.

Sportsmen in the northern part of the state are telling extravagant stories about the fishes wearing pond jelly mittens on their fins during the cold spring weather of last month. They do not state the brand or where they got it.

Like other gold crazes of late, the Idaho bubble has burst and strange to say, the man who declares it is a fake, is a Kanawha City newspaper man. They always tell the truth?

A new York judge, with a family of his own, has decided in a divorce case that $9,000 a year is the least possible sum that a society girl can live on. He speaks from experience.

From all the questions asked Dewey by the Senate Investigating Committee, it would seem that some of the Senators are sorry that he Spaniards lost the fight at Manila.

Grover Cleveland has retired to Buzzard Bay, to fish. He is probably saying D-a-m-n according to orders at the fish when he means Bryan.

President Roosevelt's descendants will be eligible to the society of the Mayflower. That is if the democrats allow the President to enjoy his new found toy.

The United States is paying its last tribute of respect to the late Lord

Oom Paul and "Boss" Croker might be placed in the same class. Both are retired political bosses who have made money.

It is the opinion of the general public, that Senator Bailey, of Texas, made an "unwarranted" ass of himself.

Senator Beveridge claims he did not get it in his neck but his collar and necktie tell a different story.

PRESS COMMENT

The Racine Journal, talking about the Republican nomination for governor, says The Contest is On. 'Tis to laugh, the contest is over and off.

Oshkosh Northwestern: The Prohibition nominee for governor in this state is named Drake. Which indicates that he takes to water naturally.

The Appleton Post has a long editorial entitled "Wholesale Spanking." We suppose it refers to the Half-Breed's treatment of the Post's fellow Stalwarts.

Reedsburg Times, Half-Breed Rep: Our local Stalwart brethren would view Spooner's retirement with equanimity if it gave Babcock a chance to succeed him.

Stoughton Hub: It is little credit to LaFollette and less to the Democrats who made it possible that Dane county was carried for the governor by the aid of Democratic votes.

Superior Leader: Carrie Nation, who will be an Elks' carnival feature in Superior, is said to have grown unusually handsome and is divorced. There are still hopes for some of the old bachelors of Superior.

Glenwood Tribune, supporter of Gov. LaFollette: It would not be a bad idea to keep an eye on the Republican who refuses to place himself on record upon the question of John C. Spooner's return to the senate. He bears watching.

Neenah Times, Dem.: The Milwaukee Journal has stirred up the g. o. p. organs in big shape by its intimation that a bolters' ticket might be in it next fall. Judging from the many hasty and turbulent denials already in sight, it looks as though the matter has at least been "considered."

This scheme to have Half-Breed papers endorse Senator Spooner for re-election, will smoke out the sheets that owe their existence to Your Uncle Isaac. They will not be allowed to even squint in that direction, whatever the unsubsidized Half-Breed prints may do.

Fond du Lac Commonwealth: The Missouri Republican state convention is the second to endorse President Roosevelt for the nomination in 1904. Pennsylvania leading the way a few weeks ago. The action of these two conventions indicates that the hold which the President has had on the public is increasing rather than diminishing.

Grand Rapids Tribune: During a talk with a prominent Republican from the north end of the county this week, that gentleman stated that there was his private opinion that there was no possible show for the Republicans to win out in either the state or county this year, provided, of course, that the Democrats put up men for the different offices in whom the people have confidence.

Chippewa Herald: It will be up to the state central committee to see that fairness and honesty is dealt out. If it is not, it will be a blow to the Republican party that will require years to overcome. The Stalwarts, or conservative Republicans, have acted fairly and honorably thus far in the campaign. Where they have been downed in the choice of delegates, they have met their defeat gracefully. All these things will have their influence. There will be a day of political reckoning in Wisconsin's political arena, and right will triumph. If it does not come next month at Madison, it will come later.

Rhineland New North: So long as the factionalists and the theorists who have formed and forced this fight in the Republican party are permitted to dictate, there will be neither peace in the party, nor credit for its accomplishments. Just remember that prediction, radicals! Perhaps the hurrah of a "patient poor's" campaign and the clap-trap about everybody being dishonest except LaFollette's lieutenants will win in Oneida county, but we prefer an expression of the people to the word of the ones who are working so hard for office.

Brillion News, Ind: If the Democratic party decides to drop the silver question, since the people will have none of it, the councils of the party could not be more enriched than by the clean, logical intellectuality of Grover Cleveland. If it decides to continue as a radical opposition party, content to devote itself merely to agitation, and the propagation of new and startling theories, there is no room in it for men like Mr. Cleveland. It can choose either course without discredit or dishonor to itself. But will it choose?

Portage Register: The best and most valuable law passed by the last legislature was the Frost Mortgage bill, which deducted the amount of the mortgage from the assessed value of the farm or property covered by mortgage. Mr. LaFollette vetoed this bill after it had been drawn and recommended by the state tax commission. Judge Gilson, head of the tax commission, decided that the Frost bill was "the greatest step toward tax reform Wisconsin had ever taken at any time." Those who have to renew their mortgages within the next two or three years will keenly realize what the veto of the bill means.

Eau Claire Leader: State Superintendent of Schools Harvey is deserving of credit for his efforts to improve the country schools and to give the children of the farmer as good an education as that enjoyed by the children living in the cities. The great drawback in many counties and the fact of the land being held in large blocks, in such cases the schools are poorly attended, there being a lack of competition among the children, progress is slow. His plan is to have central schools to which pupils will be transported at the public expense. He has just issued a pamphlet on this subject which is eminently deserving of perusal.

First Aid to the Injured. The logical reasonableness which children so often display in their imitative games was recently shown almost amusingly by a conversation overheard in the children's ward of a hospital. The Pacific Rural Press tells the story.

A little girl, whose role was that of a nurse, rang an imaginary telephone on the wall to talk to her companion at the farther end of the room, who was playing the part of doctor.

"Hello!" said the nurse, "is that the doctor?"

"Yes," answered her companion, in a deep voice, "this is the doctor."

"This lady is very sick," he was informed, "well, what seems to be the matter?"

"She has swallowed a whole bottle of ink," said the nurse.

The doctor, with great gravity, inquired what had been done for the patient.

"I gave her two pads of blotting paper," said the nurse.

Wanted to be on Safe Side.

(From the New York Commercial Advertiser.)

A sallow faced fevered looking man of 35 called at the office of a Brooklyn hospital and asked to be accepted as a patient.

"What is your occupation?" asked the doctor, after examining the patient.

"I am a Immune."

"Immune from what?"

"From yellow fever. I am employed by a firm doing business in Porto Rico. My employed prefers people who are in no danger of catching the disease. He is afraid of getting it himself, so he took me on because I am safe."

"But you are suffering from yellow fever, my friend."

"I know," answered the fevered Immune. "Can't you call the disease by some Latin name? My boss is the biggest crank you ever saw. If he finds out the nature of my illness, he'll discharge me."

Oriental Logic

(From the July Harper's Magazine.)

A man bought three pounds of meat and brought it home to his wife to cook for dinner, and then went his way to his place of business in the bazaar. The wife was hungry and ate the meat.

In the evening the man came home and asked for his dinner.

"There is no meat," said the wife, "for the cat ate it."

"Bring in the cat," said the man, "and a pair of scales."

"Weigh the cat," said the man. The cat weighed three pounds.

"If this is the cat," said the man, "where is the meat? And if this is the meat, where is the cat?"

"A centipede was happy quite,

Until a frog, in fun,

Said, 'Pray, which leg comes after which?'"

This raised her mind to such a pitch, She lay distracted in the ditch, Considering how to run."

A Fireless Smoke: The fire department was called out last night at 9 o'clock by an alarm turned in from box 28 at the East Side Engine house.

The alarm was caused by a chimney being clogged, and forcing the smoke from a fire that had been kindled in J. H. Myers' store on Main street, out into D. W. Watt's rooms over the store. The rooms were completely filled with smoke and the alarm was telephoned in to the East Side Engine house from the Myers house. No damage was done other than what may be caused by the rooms filling up with smoke.

Golf Club Bus: The Golf Club bus will meet all street cars tomorrow after nine o'clock. There is no regular program of events on the ground tomorrow but a number of individual matches will be played for team position during the day.

BEGIN THE WORK ON WATER SYSTEM

Pipes Are Tapped at the City Hall Building—Progress of the Work.

At the city hall the mains are being tapped today to make connections with the water system throughout the building. The radiators are all in place ready to be connected with the steam pipes. On the third floor the oak casings of the windows are being put in place and carpenters are working on the base boards which are of the same material as the casings. The weights are also being put in the windows.

Second Floor. On the second floor the work has not yet reached the same stage as on the upper floor, but it will be taken up next in order. As soon as the cement foundation for the hall floors are laid, and workmen are now at this part of the work, tiling will begin and the staircase will be put in at about the same time.

Oak Finishing Here. The oak fittings for the railings of the smaller stairways are unpacked and are ready to be put in position as soon as the carpenters reach that point in the work.

Now A Citizen: Arnold Ackerman of Monroe took out his second papers today and became a full-fledged citizen of the U. S.

Court Notes: In C. W. Reeder's Justice of the Peace court, the following proceedings are scheduled for today: D. W. Pound vs. Edward F. Moran and Cella Moran; Janesville Carriage Works vs. Oscar Mabey. The parties in the latter case did not appear at the appointed time. The case of D. W. Pound for the possession of his sorrel colt, which is at present being held by Miles Cox, began trial at eleven o'clock this morning. Both cases were adjourned from six days ago.

The Baby's Diet

is a serious problem with the mothers, especially during the warm summer days. These little "human barometers" are more easily affected by the slightest impurities in their food than the strong, healthy adult. One of the articles of food for the mother and baby, that is the most susceptible to the absorption of disease germs, is milk, and for this reason we have had installed in our big factory the latest hygienic appliances for the handling of that product, and furnish to our customers only the purest. Pasteurized and Aereated Milk and Cream in air tight sealed bottles and guarantee its purity and healthfulness.

NO GENERAL PLAN FOR CELEBRATING

GLORIOUS FOURTH IS AT HAND

Private Citizens Will Have Fire Works Display Tomorrow Evening—Public Invited.

No noteworthy preparations for the Fourth can be distinguished in the stores and residences of Janesville, aside from the usual window decorations and the equally usual preparations to supply the small boy of the neighborhood with a sufficient quantity of powder and red fire to satisfy his most ardent patriotism.

The druggists are re-charging their fountains and preparing a special quantity of syrups, crushed fruit and all else that goes to make the soda fountain dear to the heart of American youth. They at least anticipate no holiday rest tomorrow.

The general arbiters of the weather may tell rain or what he will, but there still will be the thrifty throng who when in doubt take a soda.

The dealers in fire works also are ready for a busy day in handing out the commodities that yearly burn property, maim bodies and destroy lives, and make life hideous for the old and less enthusiastic part of the population. But despite all this the small boy insists on his gunpowder and noise so the wisest course for those whose nerves are too sensitive or patriotic blood too phlegmatic in its circulation to allow real appreciation of the youngsters' feelings is to take Foxy Quiller's advice and hie to the tall grass.

Up On Quality Hill
The people residing on "Quality Hill" will have a celebration of their own on Friday night. They took up a subscription among the residents of that part of the town and raised money enough to have a first-class fireworks display. The fireworks will be set off on the hill in Forest Park, just east of the big ravine and south of Court street. F. H. Baack and George S. Parker are the prime movers in the enterprise.

The Y. M. C. A. band has been secured and will give a concert beginning at eight o'clock and the fireworks display will last about an hour. George M. McKee will be in charge and the display will end with a balloon ascension, from which fireworks will be discharged. A cordial invitation is extended to the public and the crowd will assemble on the corner of Court and Harrison streets.

YOUNG PIANISTS GIVE A RECITAL

Pupils of Miss Ella Willis Entertain Friends with Music at Her Home.

Piano pupils of Miss Ella Willis gave a very pleasant musical at her home, 206 Locust street, Tuesday afternoon, a large company of relatives and friends of the young musicians being present to enjoy the afternoon of melody. A splendid program was given, all the pupils playing in a manner that reflected credit on their teacher and on themselves.

The program included solos, duets, and trios, all excellently rendered, and the pupils who participated were Mrs. Wilcox, Clara Schwartz, Gertrude Simmons, Nettie Swan, Lillie Ellis, Marguerite Welsh, Mary Daley, Carl Otto, Grace Hall, Mamie Waterman and Julia Daley.

The pupils were ably assisted by Earl Garbutt, who played a violin solo, Gertrude Perry, violinist, and Ida Perry, pianist, who played a duet and Miss Mabel Chase, of Humboldt, Ia., who played an exquisite piano solo. Miss Gertrude Perry also played a piano solo and little Julia Daley sang very sweetly.

Miss Willis had offered several prizes for excellent work and they were awarded at the recital. Clara Schwartz and Carl Otto received silver spoons for not having missed a lesson in six months and Mary Daley received the prize for not having missed a lesson in three months and also the prize for the greatest number of good points and the most hours of practice. Julia Daley received a prize for exceptionally faithful work.

Are Entertained: The members of St. Catherine's Reading Circle were entertained last evening at the home of Miss Buckley on South Jackson street. At the conclusion of the business meeting the gentlemen friends of the members of the circle began to arrive and the balance of the evening was spent in playing cards and other games. The prizes in the card games were drawn by Mrs. Nelson and Miss Anna Cax. Refreshments were served to the guests by the hostess at the close of the card games. A re-organization of the circle was effected at the business meeting the officers elected being President, Mrs. Oscar Pyper; Secretary, Mrs. Kittie Crowley; Treasurer, Miss Margaret Barron.

William O'Hara.

Word was received today by relatives in this city that William O'Hara, who formerly resided here, had committed suicide at his home, 183 Michigan street, Milwaukee, by turning on the gas.

The news came in the form of a telegram to Chief of Police Hogan, from the chief of police of Milwaukee, notifying him of the death of O'Hara. His brother, John D. O'Hara, who is the only member of the family now living, was notified of the sad event by Chief Hogan, and left for Milwaukee at 12:45 to bring the body to this city for interment.

The deceased resided in this city for many years, and was a carpenter by trade. He was one of a large family of boys, all of whom are now dead, with the exception of J. D.

During his residence in this city the deceased was well liked by all who knew him, and his relatives are at a loss for a reason why he should take his own life.

GOLF DATES FIXED

Madison Plays Here on July 17.—Racine on July 10.

The golf match between the team from the Maple Bluff Golf club of Madison and a team from the Mississippi Golf club over the home course which was scheduled for July 12 has been postponed until July 17.

The Racine team will play in this city on the 10th and for that reason the Madison club was asked to postpone their game to some later date. They have events scheduled for the 19th and 26th of July and asked for a date between the 13th and 19th. In order to accommodate them as they have an event on the 19th the 17th was decided upon by the Handicap and Games Committee of the Mississippi club.

The Madison people are taking considerable interest in golf this year and expect to bring a team of about fifteen players when they come here.

INTERURBAN LINE AWAITING CARS

DELAY CAUSED IN FACTORY

As Soon as They Are Secured, the Line Between Beloit and Rockford Will Open.

H. H. Jackson was up from Beloit today on business connected with the grading of the Beloit, Delavan Lake and Janesville electric line. He stated that the line between Beloit and Rockford was ready for operation as soon as they could get some cars. The cars were to be delivered to the road on April 1st, but on account of a fire in the factory that makes the lining for the cars they have not yet been delivered.

They tried to secure some cars from the Rockford and Belvidere line and from the Rockford city line but on account of the extra travel on the Fourth and a circus in Rockford they could not secure the cars and will have to wait for their own cars before they can operate the line.

The grading between Janesville and Beloit is now well under way and the line should be completed into Janesville by the middle of August.

PREDICTIONS ARE FOR RAINY FOURTH

Weather Man Says That the Sun Will Not Shine on the Small Boy.

Professor Walz of Chicago, refuses to prophesy a fair day for the Fourth. He regrets it, but all indications now point to rain and heat on the glorious independence day. This, however, is not final. Nature has yet time in which to intervene in favor of the small boy.

The humidity yesterday was excessive. Though the thermometer reached only 73 degrees yesterday, it felt like 85. This was due to the humidity, 92 per cent, at 7 p. m., and 86 per cent at 7 p. m. The rainfall, however, was only two-hundredths of an inch.

The storm last night was central in western Colorado and Wyoming and ought to reach Chicago in full force on Friday, but it may get switched.

NEWS OF THE CITY IN BRIEF.

Will Race in Beloit: John L. Fisher has entered his pacing mare Aunt Laura at Beloit in the free for all and Lady B in the 2:20 pace. Mr. Maxwell also has an entry in the 2:45 pace.

Court Notes: The case of Albert Sach vs. Ben Cone was argued in the municipal court today. L. E. Gettle, of Edgerton, appeared for the plaintiff and E. M. Ladd and M. O. Mount for the defense.

A Ladies' Dinner: A number of the lady members of the Mississippi Golf Club met at the club house this noon and enjoyed a swell dinner, at which no gentlemen were present. Miss Rachne Bostwick will entertain a party of invited guests at a supper and dance at the club house this evening.

Insurance Men Meet: The insurance agents of the city gathered at the Myers House last evening and held one of their regular monthly gatherings and enjoyed a supper in the ordinary. After supper an hour's time was spent by the agents in discussing matters pertaining to the business.

Patrol Wagon Out: The patrol wagon was called out this morning to take Elsworth Allen, the St. Paul brakeman who lost a foot two weeks ago by falling off a gravel train on Brownstown hill from the Palmer hospital to his home on Madison street. Allen is getting along nicely and will be able to be about on crutches in the course of ten days.

Moving Safe: The work of moving the safe from the city clerk's office to the office that will be occupied by him in the new city hall is now under way. The safe had to be taken out through the council chamber and through a rear window over the roof of the fire station barn down to the alley in the rear. Eugene Fish is doing the work and will soon have the big box in its new quarters.

Storm Damaged Grain: It is said that the storm of Tuesday night did considerable damage to farming property about the city. The principal damage was to the growing grain which is lodged badly. The growing grain needs some dry hot weather to ripen it.

20th Century Club: Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Watson entertained the members of the Twentieth Century Card club at their home on Mineral Point avenue, yesterday afternoon and evening. The ladies were invited for the afternoon and the gentlemen for the evening. Supper was served at 6:30, after which a social session was held and the balance of the evening devoted to cards.

Closed on the Fourth.

The store of Bort, Bailey & Co., will be closed all day on July 4.

LOCAL GIDEONS IN CEDAR RAPIDS

AT THE NATIONAL CONVENTION

National Secretary J. H. Nicholson and Wife Left Janesville This Morning.

Mr. and Mrs. John Nicholson left this morning for Cedar Rapids, Ia., to attend the annual convention of the National Order of Gideons, the organization of Christian traveling salesmen which Mr. Nicholson and W. J. Knights, of this city and S. E. Hill, of Beloit were instrumental in founding in this city July 1, 1899. These three men were the only ones present at the birth of the order whose influence is now felt throughout the nation and of which Mr. Hill was elected president, Mr. Nicholson, secretary and Mr. Knights, treasurer. These positions later grew into national offices and are still held by the same gentlemen.

National Secretary Nicholson went to Cedar Rapids today to perfect all arrangements before the opening of the convention tomorrow evening. The main Wisconsin delegation leaves tomorrow morning in a special chair car which will leave Madison on the 6:10 C. & N. W. train. Quite a number from this city expect to accompany the party.

Janesville Speakers

The convention will close with the Sunday evening session and a very fine program has been arranged. President S. E. Hill will be the moderator at the majority of the sessions. J. H. Nicholson and W. J. Knights are the representatives from Janesville on the program. Besides their official reports, Mr. Knights will read the Scripture lesson at the opening session and will be one of the speakers at the St. Paul's M. E. church on Sunday morning while Mr. Nicholson will give a ten minute practical talk on "Our Object and How Best Realized," tomorrow evening and have charge of the Sunday morning service at the First Presbyterian church. He will also be moderator at the Sunday afternoon service. W. F. McCaughey, of Janesville, is also on the program as one of the speakers at the Sunday afternoon service and at the First Presbyterian church Sunday morning.

No Work Done: Despite the arrival of the long awaited lumber for the Carnegie library and several carloads of brick, the library building was completely deserted this morning. No carpenters or masons were at their work and no one was in the office.

Archers For Pilgrims

It is estimated that somewhere near 150,000 Knights of Pythias and their friends are going to make the pilgrimage west to San Francisco in August next. For this event all the overland railroads have made especially low rates. The Californians are offering every hospitality. A feature of the reception will be big arches that will span the chief streets of San Francisco. They are to be models of architectural genius. The material is to be entirely composed of the choicest and rarest woods and minerals in the state. The main arch will be seventy feet in width and fifty-eight feet in height. The exterior is to resemble ivory, trimmed with 34,000 feet of garlands for each arch. 100 wreaths of light, 7,000 incense, 200 are lights, 100 double banners, 200 colonnades, flags, pennants and emblems.

FASTS FOR FIFTY-THREE DAYS

Aged Woman Spiritualist Is Unable to Partake of Food.

Muncie, Ind., July 3.—After a fifty-three days' fast Mrs. Wanda George, who at 81 claims to be the oldest Spiritualist medium, although still alive, is reduced to a skeleton. When she started she was a healthy woman weighing 210 pounds. While living in Chicago five years ago she prophesied she would soon be stricken blind. Now she is the victim of a strange disease which has baffled the skill of all available specialists. She fasts not because she wants to, but because she is physically incapable of taking any food.

KANSAS FARMERS ARE SAILORS

Use Boats and Rafts to Harvest the Wheat Crop.

Topeka, Kan., July 3.—Water is so high in Vermilion creek valley, twenty miles northwest of here, that the farmers are using boats and rafts to harvest their wheat. The wheat was in shocks when the flood came and the boats were used to bring the shocks and stacks to land. All the men and boats near the scene of the flood have been pressed into service.

MINERS GUARD THE COLLIERIES

Pickets Prevent Bosses and Other Workers from Going Into Mines.

JUSTICE SCORES OPERATORS

Declares the Only People Who Are Disturbing the Peace Are the Armed Thugs Who Are Masquerading Under Guise of the Law.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., July 3.—Pickets of the striking miners again guarded all the roads leading to the collieries in the Hazleton district, and prevented bosses and other workers going to the mines.

The companies are having each of the men who was turned back make out a statement. It is their intention to either force the authorities to protect the men or compel them to call upon the sheriff for aid, and if that official cannot give it to make him call upon the governor.

The condition is rapidly approaching the point where an outbreak is likely. At the Drifton colliery of Cox Bros. & Co. the situation is critical. A crowd of strikers armed with clubs, stones, and revolvers was stopped by the deputy sheriffs while marching on the colliery; at other places the deputies read the riot act to impress the crowd. Workers who did not readily obey the order to turn back were assaulted. Alvin Wasmur, chief engineer for Cox Bros. & Co., was badly mauled and bruised.

Upholds the Miners. Justice of the Peace McKelvey sent, in answer to the operators' request, a long letter, one paragraph of which stated:

"From the speech of the president of Hazle township, I find that the only people who are engaged in attempted breaches of the peace are the armed thugs who are masquerading under the guise of the law, whose evident purpose is to incite peaceful, law-abiding miners to break the peace so that they may be justified in shooting them down."

Big mass meetings of the miners were held at Beaver Meadow and McAdoo and the officials of the union addressed them.

The first case incited by the "citizens' alliance" was tried. The alliance heard that a number of merchants of the west side had been declared "unfair," and a notice posted, signed by William Fitzer, a mine worker. Fourteen of the merchants were induced to prosecute, and the case was called before Justice Van Loon at Kingston. Fitzer was held under $500 in each of the fourteen cases on the charge of libel, and in default of the total $7,000 bail he was sent to jail.

Strikers Under Arrest.

Four arrests occurred at Freeland, and the men are now in jail. Deputy Sheriff Isaac Eckert and a force of deputies intercepted a crowd of 300 strikers marching toward the Drifton colliery of Cox Bros. & Co. Eckert read the riot act and most of the men were turned back. John Shovin had a big revolver, and, having it over his left arm, dared any deputy or any one else to make him turn back. He was arrested, and with him John Schroeder, John Wuscavage, and William Celat, and brought back to this city and sent to jail.

The first march of women occurred last night north of this city, a route several miles long being covered by 100 of them marching two by two along the road. They hissed all the nonunion men they met, and hooted and yelled in front of all the nonunion houses they passed. They would allow no men in their ranks.

TRAGIC DEATH BY CARBOLIC ACID

Sad Fate of the Infant Son of Albert Holmes, Formerly of This City.

After swallowing a bottle of carbolic acid and suffering the most intense agony for over an hour, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Holmes, of Fort Atkinson, former residents of this city, died at Brodhead on Monday morning. Funeral services were held in Brodhead on Tuesday morning and the funeral party passed through this city on the way to Fort Atkinson, where the interment took place.

The story of the child's death is extremely sad. He was a bright, lovable little fellow twenty-two months old and was in excellent health. He accompanied his mother to this city last week and then went to Brodhead, intending to return this week to visit Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Murdock in whose flats Mr. and Mrs. Holmes lived during their residence in this city.

At Brodhead Mrs. Holmes and her son visited at the home of Dr. Stevenson and it was there that the tragic accident took place. As an accommodation to the proprietor of the hotel which was over crowded, Mrs. Stevenson consented to take a transient guest for over night. This guest, a lady, rose early, took a bath and departed leaving a bottle of carbolic acid standing in the bath room.

The little child was the first to discover the poison. The bath room opened off from the room occupied by Mrs. Holmes and her son. When they arose, Mrs. Holmes dressed the child and then put him down on the floor to play around the room. He ran into the bath room and almost instantly Mrs. Holmes heard him cry out in pain. In less than twenty minutes the child was in convulsions and in an hour and ten minutes he was dead.

He was the only child and the bereaved parents are frantic with grief. A large party of friends accompanied them from Brodhead and the funeral train was met in this city by Jamesville friends of the afflicted parents.

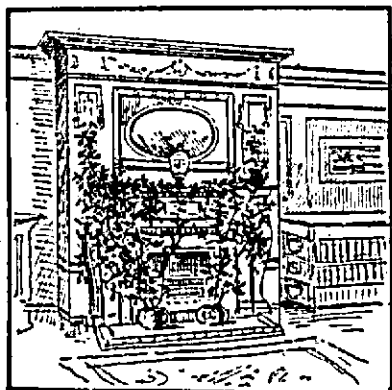

FIREPLACE FERNERIES.

Hearth Gardens That Preserve a Desirable Temperature and Are an Aid to Beauty.

Of a number of excellent plans for screening or decorating a fireplace none is more sensible or ornamental than that of turning it into a sort of fernery. Ferns, ivy, swamp lilies, periwinkles and two or three varieties of oriental iris love to root in cool, dark, moist places, and properly drained and planted, a fireplace garden can be made just as attractive as one in a window. One woman, whose cottage drawing-room is provided with a very old-fashioned square brick fireplace, in which the antique crane still swings, and above which the narrow mantel shelf is set very high, resorted to very simple measures for beautifying it during the summer. She bought three copper pots, such as the florists hang in their windows full of flowers. These she had filled with earth, and planted with green things that love the shade, and stringing them along the crane, she effectively screened the smoke-blackened cavern where the flames had leaped all winter.

Many of her friends have since had polished steel cranes fixed in their modern fireplaces, and on these they have hung brass kettles and bowls, and one went so far as to have her brick-ace dealer hunt up for her a true old-fashioned three-legged iron crane pot.

Another resourceful housekeeper who has had large experience with house plants found last winter that English ivy would grow gratefully if allowed a vase of fresh water every day in which to keep its green toes moist. With the coming of spring she dared not plant her ivy out of doors, knowing it could not withstand the withering heat of our climate. Accordingly she bought two green boxes, made of small green tiles, filled them with rich earth and a larger portion of sand, and taking two well-grown ivy sprays from the water, she planted them on either side of her plain hearth. Two more sprays she put in boxes and put them on either end of the black marble mantel shelf.

The ivy has already grown up and down, and promises to throw a rich green veil over the whole fireplace, frame the mirror above it and do away with brick-ace at that point. As hers is a city house, where, on her husband's account, she spends the major portion of every summer, she finds the curtain of green a most delightful and refreshing ornament.

The florists, who are always quick to accept good ideas, have come to a realization of the fact that something is needed for fireplace decoration in summer. Accordingly the fireplace screen has been introduced. In the leaves of the screen the ribbons and tendrils of iron form a series of brackets, into which large and small green tile pots fit. In the pots all manner of trailing green things are rooted, and their garlands and long tendrils, weaving as they grow through the wrought iron fret work, form a delicate and effective screen for the whole hearth.

By another equally pleasing arrangement the florist will measure a fireplace and build a special floral hearth box. He makes this box of beaten brass, or copper, or tiles, or painted wood and roots in it irises, and lilies, and green up-standing things, that will shut off the view of the grate or the gap left by the removal of the fire dogs and logs with a wall of color and verdure that is a delightful ornament to any room.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Woman's Lot in Japan. According to western ideas the married woman in Japan is not to be envied. A Japanese girl's marriage dowry consists of nothing beyond her dresses, a little writing desk, a box of cosmetics and other toilet necessities, a couple of little dining tables and a few lacquer plates. Japanese women do not inherit fortunes, and in families where there is no son one is adopted as an heir. Women of the poorer classes are most to be pitied. A husband is as free as a bachelor, and can do exactly what he chooses. A man marries when he likes, and when he tires of his wife he may put her away and take another with as little fuss as we make about changing our tradespeople. These exchanges, or divorces, are most frequent among the poor, but are comparatively rare among the upper classes.

The Grand Jury decided that no one should be held criminally responsible for the fire at St. Luke's sanitarium.

WONDERFUL DANDERINE

Miss Helen Hart, 635 Kimbark Ave., Chicago.

CHICAGO, Feb. 6, 1902. Knowlton Danderine Co., Chicago—Dear Sirs: I have used your Danderine for nearly six months, and I think it is just fine. My hair now measures four feet and one inch, and it was less than two feet long when I commenced to use your tonic. I am going to keep it up and see just how long it will make my hair grow. Sincerely yours,

Helen Hart, 635 Kimbark Ave. DANDERINE is absorbed most eagerly by the scalp, and its properties are so invigorating and strengthening that it makes the hair grow naturally thick and long. When applied to the scalp it is just as sure to produce an abundance of long, glossy hair as a fertile soil is to produce vegetation when the seeds are sown. It is working wonders everywhere. We guarantee that one 25c bottle of it will do the hair more good than a gallon of any other hair tonic ever made. Be sure you get the genuine, made only by The Knowlton Danderine Co., Chicago, Ill. 25c, 50c, and $1.00 per bottle. All druggists keep Danderine or will order it for you if you ask them.

FREE to show how quickly Danderine acts. The Knowlton Danderine Co., Chicago, will send a large sample free by return mail to anyone who sends us this advertisement with their name and address and 10c in silver or stamps to pay postage. For Sale by

COLORADO

The way to get the best accommodations is via the

GREAT ROCK ISLAND ROUTE

WHY? It is the only direct line to Colorado Springs and Manitou. It is the popular route to Denver. It has the best dining car service. It has the finest equipment and most satisfactory schedule, and in the ROCKY MOUNTAIN LIMITED offers the best train, only one night Chicago to Colorado.

It leaves Chicago daily at 5:45 p.m. and arrives at Denver 8:45 p.m., Colorado Springs (Manitou) 8:30 p.m. Another inducement to use the Rock Island will be the round trip rates of $25 Chicago to Colorado and $15 Missouri River points to Colorado effective this summer by that line.
